

Copyright Board
Canada

Commission du droit d'auteur
Canada

Date	2026-02-09
Ruling of the Board	CB-CDA 2026-015
Proceeding	Television Retransmission Tariff (2019-2028)
Case Manager	Drew Olsen

I. Background

[1] As per the schedule of proceeding, the Parties filed two motion records for leave to serve interrogatories on January 22, 2026.

II. Ruling

[2] Both motions for leave to serve interrogatories are granted, with the following directions:

1. Interrogatories shall be limited to the ones identified in the motion records;
2. Interrogatories must comply with PN 2023-011 – Practice Notice on Interrogatory Process. This means, for example, that census-like questions must be substituted with requests for a sample of responding information;
3. Responsive information should not overlap with the answers to the Board's questions, which were set out in Order CB-CDA 2025-090, Annex A;
4. Responsive information should not overlap with the Mediastats and Numeris studies; and
5. Parties are encouraged to raise objections, if any, as soon as possible and need not wait for the deadline set out in the schedule of proceeding (Order CB-CDA 2025-119).