UNLOCATABLE COPYRIGHT OWNER

Non-exclusive licence issued to Canada's National History Society, Winnipeg, Manitoba, for the reproduction of an image of a painting by Kenneth Keith Forbes

Pursuant to the provisions of subsection 77(1) of the Copyright Act, the Copyright Board grants a licence to Canada's National History Society, as follows:

- (1) The licence authorizes the reproduction of an image of the 1924 painting Girl Ironing by Kenneth Keith Forbes, published in the Catalogue of the National Gallery of Canada: Canadian Art Volume One in 1988, on gift cards to be used as thank you gifts by the applicant.

No more than 5,000 copies of the work shall be reproduced.

The issuance of this licence does not release the applicant from the obligation to obtain permission for any other use not covered by this licence.

- (2) The licence expires on December 31, 2003. The authorized reproduction must therefore be completed by that date.
- (3) The licence is non-exclusive and valid only in Canada. For other countries, it is the law of that country that applies.
- (4) The Canada's National History Society will pay the sum of $150 to the Canadian Artists' Representation Copyright Collective (CARCC). CARCC may dispose of the amount as it sees fit for the general benefit of its members. It undertakes, however, to reimburse any person who establishes, before December 31, 2008, ownership of the copyright of the work covered by this licence.
- (5) The coming into force of this licence is conditional on the filing with the Board of a receipt from CARCC for the amount of the royalty specified in the licence, accompanied by CARCC's undertaking to comply with the conditions set out in paragraph (4) above.
